Yes, The Rick WAKEMAN Show is on the road.

Months of government pressure both in England and abroad, high level summit meetings with the President in the White House and even a telephone call from Her Majesty the Queen, failed to stop Rick Wakeman taking his bunch of suicidal perverts around the world to seriously upset music lovers.

POLICE CALLED to riot at Rick Wakeman Show

Police were called in yet again to quell the rioting fans at a recent Rick WAKEMAN Show.

"Thousands of chanting, screaming fans tried to break the doors down, and even unashed windows.

A police spokesman said:

"Rick Wakeman gave us strict orders not to let the people out once we'd got them in. However a few lucky ones did manage to get away."

Sargeant John Jackson of Cowbell division also added that there was absolutely no police brutality during the riot, it was quite normal for 236 people to die of natural causes.

Manager accused of Fraud

"I have never told a lie" said Brian Lane today, who gave his age as 23 and told the Court he was a Protestant, and did part time social and missionary work in Egypt.

"I find this hard to believe" said Judge Wakeman prosecuting, as you look more like a money-grabbing, 40 year old Jew to me."

"Just a trick of the light already" said Lane stretching his arms out wide, and impersonating Conlon on landing.

"Very well" said Wakeman "Will the bond ever get paid".

"Most definitely" said Lane. "By whom, when, and where, I haven't got a clue, but rest assured I am always available when the lads want me, 24 hours a day."

Lane was granted bail of two Rick Wakeman cassettes, and after leaving the court took the first flight to Bermuda where he intends to stay for a year or two.

Vivacious TOBYNGA ERRINGTON from Maida Vale likes riding bicycles and goes for long rides in the country with her boyfriend Paula. Sometimes Tobynga takes her bicycle along as well.

Dr Barnacle (The Daily Error's consultant doctor), says, "She has quite enormous Bristols (Latin: MAMARI COLLOSSI), but the hairy growth on the chin and the fact that Tobynga stands up in the loo when doing "number one", leads me to think that perhaps something is amiss, or amister.

Road Manager in sex scandal

"Is it Paul or Paula?"

"I shave once a day Mr. (Miss?) Adam told the Tribunal. "That's perfectly normal, isn't it?" "First the left armpit, and then the right one."

"I'll prove I'm a man", (she said, and removed all his (her) clothing.

The Tribunal immediately decided that it was pointless continuing the argument over such a small thing.

"I play football, smoke cigars, drink pints of lager, how much more do you want?" he appealed to the Tribunal.

"An awful lot more than what I can see from here" replied Miss Sandra Campbell who was leading the investigation.

All the scandalous filth you always wanted to know about the RICK WAKEMAN SHOW:

CONFIDENTIAL CLINIC

Dr Steve Barnacle, resident bass player, of no fixed brain, answers readers queries.

Please can you tell me why, when you break wind, it smells?

R. W., Switzerland

Dr Barnacle replies:

Baskardly it's for the benefit of deaf people, who of course are unable to hear them.

I have strong sexual urges towards my fellow man, and permanently desire to have a relationship with Denis Healey on a London Tube Train. Am I little queer?

P.A., Hummies

Dr Barnacle replies:

As you haven't told me your height, it's very difficult for me to answer.

I am terribly overweight, and am tired of people calling me fatty. What should I do?

Please keep my identity a secret.

(Name and address supplied)

Dr Barnacle replies:

Well, Mr Ashley Holt of Chesham, no may I call you Fatty, I suggest you eat and drink even more, very quickly while you can, because on the wages Rick Wakeman pays you, you'll soon be starving to death and wasting away.

SEARCH for missing merchandise magnet still goes on

The photo shows Adrian introducing Liza Minnella to a stunned Albert Hall crowd explaining that like his T-Shirts somebody had stupidly washed Liza just before the show.

Having spent over six months interviewing suitable companies to carry out the Rick Wakeman Show's merchandising and selecting Adrian Hopkins Promotions to carry out the work it was with shock that the group heard the news "He had done a runner."

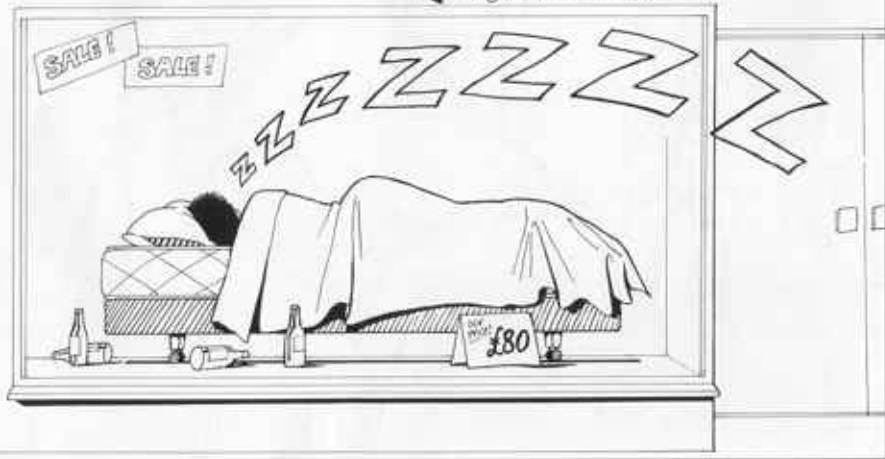

A shocked Wakeman said from his Camden Town bol-sol "I am not surprised". We first met Adrian and we were very impressed with his T-Shirts and Sweat-Shirts as not only did the shirts distort and fade with one wash but the sizes were all wrong. He was not the only company with this service, but for me the fact that his badges not only rarely had pins on but they rusted at the hint of rain, clinched the deal.

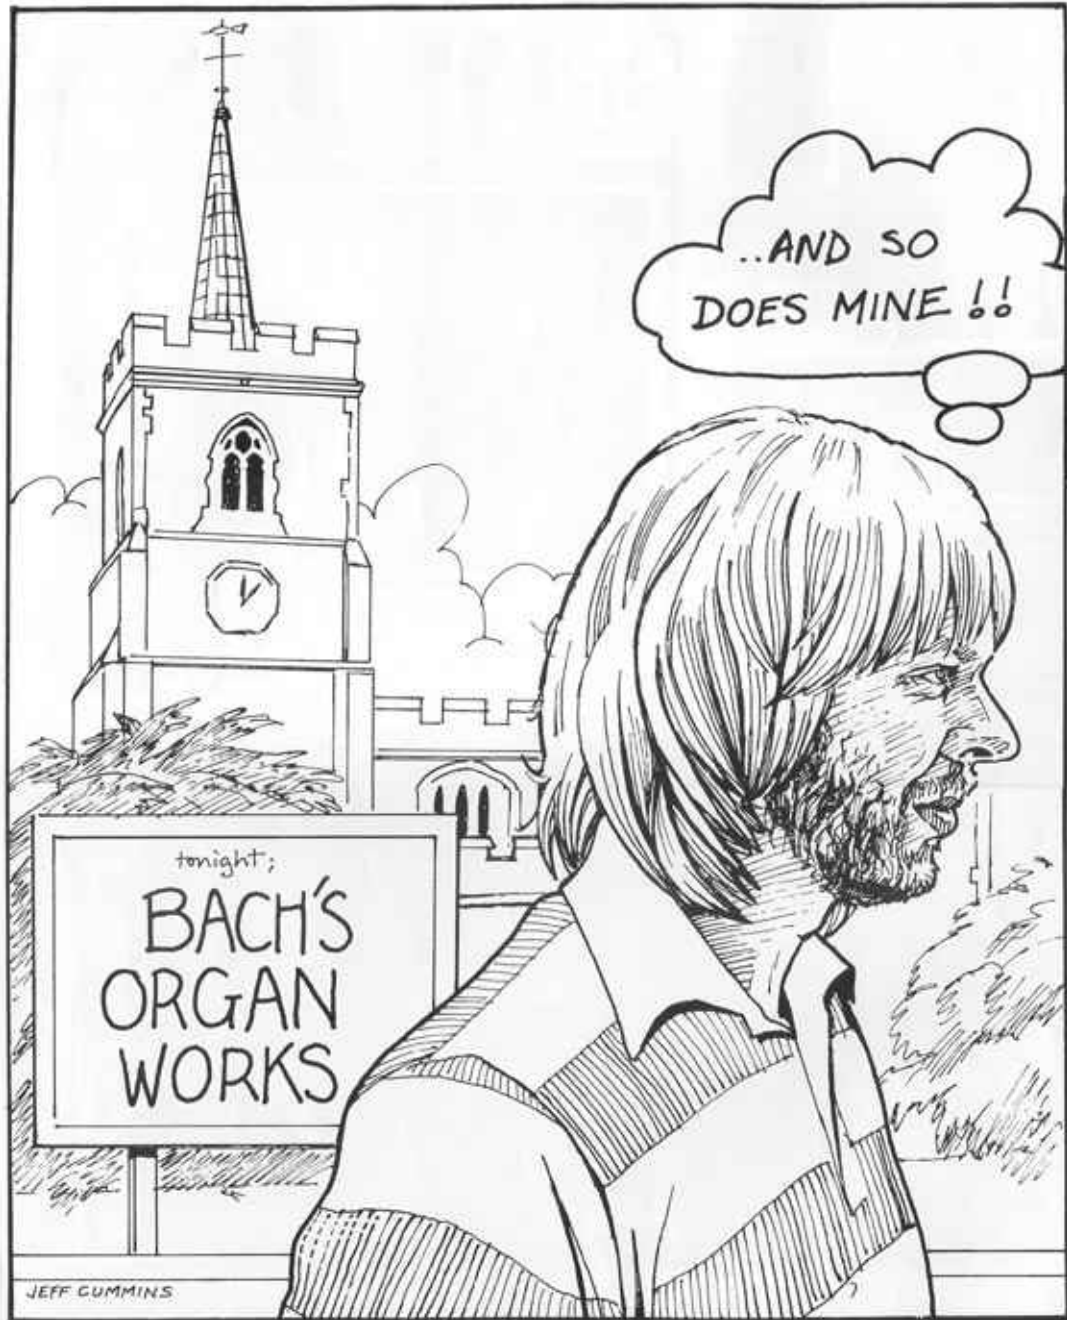

We have had his company searching the world for an embroidered patch and Sweat-Shirt that will fall out when it comes into contact with the air and although this has now been perfected the strain has obviously been too great. In the past he has often gone missing after a tour without paying the group but never before the tour has started.

If you see a man that looks like this at any of the concerts, go up to him and say: 3 Sweat-Shirts, 4 T-Shirts, 8 badges, 3 scarves and a patch. If he chuckles then this is Adrian and you should report his position to a security officer. Firstly though, pay for the gear as he can be dangerous.

RICK WAKEMAN

Rick was an only child and could often be seen playing with himself. Still an only child he still can be seen playing with himself.

His mother (Mildred) once said "Richard is an only child and often used to play with himself".

Later as he approached middle teens he found people who would play with him.

Oh what fun it was, and still is.

His hobbies include, lurking behind bicycle sheds, watching Brentford, buying naughty magazines, and dressing up.

However he is still a lonely fellow and spends a lot of time on his own amusing himself . . . and sometimes abusing himself.

He has strong feelings for the opposite sex. In fact he once said "I have strong feelings for the opposite sex".

He like to dress them up too.

But enough about his quite lonely life. Lets look at the other side of his character.

How does he write new music?

"Well, I like to be alone", I just sit at the piano, let my fingers do all the work, and I just play around with myself".

What does the rest of the band think of their Führer

Ashley

"He's a perverted, nasty, randy old tart, and he owes me money from the last tour I did with him. That's the only reason I've come on this tour to try and collect my money".

Boghead

Musically I find it challenging, although the girl guides uniform he bought me is a little on the small side.

Beaky

He makes me vomit.

Woppo

I never liked him and never will.

How often does such praise flow forth from a band towards their glorious Führer, who would wade through buckets of boiling smelly brown stuff just to avoid buying a round of drinks.

Yes Wakeman is a legend from the bicycle sheds in Hanwell to stains on the Nurses home wall at Leeds infirmary.

Well tonight you can become part of that legend.

You poor bastards.

Midland Car Parks branch out

M C P

The entire staff of MCP planning the Rick Wakeman's Tour.

M.C.P. the well known Midland firm, that until now have run car parks all over the Midlands are promoting the British part of the Rick Wakeman Show.

Taking time off from counting his money Maurice Jones M.D. explained his reasons to the Daily Error.

The car park business has been falling off since the strap councils have been taking over our sites to build houses and other non profit making ventures, Tim Parsons, known in the business as laughing boy, explained further. As we were losing more and more of our sites I booked Donnington Park for a weekend to see if people would use this site to park their cars. Maurice thought the field was too far out of town, so booked Rainbow, Scorpions and Judas Priest to encourage them. This worked and we made a lot of money on the car parking. Maurice was not as thrilled with the outcome as Tim for at his age it was all too noisy, musical and crowded for his liking. - Hence the Rick Wakeman Show. We have to be careful of the things that we do because the citizens that we work from do not allow any business involving entertainment to be carried out there, so being involved with the Rick Wakeman Show was a natural step.

Candid Interview

Tony FERNANDEZ talking candidly with our ace interviewer Robin Daze.

- R.D. Tell me, you've agreed to answer honestly all questions put to you, so tell me, what did you do before joining the Rick WAKEMAN Show?
- T.F. Mind your own business, you public school poof.
- R.D. Are you in fact a dago?
- T.F. Might be. Find out for yourself.
- R.D. Well as we seem to be getting on so well, may I call you Greasy Wop?

- T.F. Now you are talking my language.
- R.D. Great. Now then Woppy, tell me, what did you do before joining the Rick WAKEMAN Show?
- T.F. Mind your own business, you public school poof.
- R.D. Well you not in fact a used ice-cream salesman?
- T.F. No, I was in fact a used ice-cream salesman.
- R.D. Did you sell many flavours?
- T.F. The lot.
- R.D. Crushed nuts?
- T.F. No, I've just got a touch of laryngitis.
- R.D. I meant crushed nuts on the comets.
- T.F. I play drums, not a bloody cornet.
- R.D. I think we'll let the general public decide.
- T.F. Who?
- R.D. General Public.
- T.F. Now he thinks I'm in the bloody army.
- R.D. Good night you Greasy Dago.
- T.F. "Night Dummy".

DAGOLOLLY

'There is nothing like good music'

"There is nothing like good music" said Richard Cowley of COWBELL, (who are agents for the ludicrous Rick WAKEMAN Show). "and the Rick WAKEMAN Show is nothing like good music".

Quite a harsh statement from the multi-millionaire agent who you, from the gutter, vowed he would never grovel in the dirt again, but in order to be reminded of such humble origins he would reduce all his acts to the lowest depths of the gutter instead.

"Gutter Rock" I call it said the smiling, slightly balding Richard as he gallily booked the Bay City Rollers for eleven years at the public conveniences in Wigan. "I like to place acts in places that suit their music" he said.

I'm sorry lads you'll never make it as long as I've got hair on my head.

Richard Cowley putting together the Rick Wakeman tour.

Competition

Lots of prizes that will never be won.

Just follow the easy rules and answer the questions to the best of your ability.

Then complete in not more than one word, containing no more than four letters the following sentence.

"I think Rick Wakeman is a . . ."

The Competition itself

Imagine you have just been to a Rick Wakeman concert and a good friend of yours asks you what was the best thing about it.

Well, look at the following selected answers and put them in order of the best six, e.g. if you think answer A is the most original put answer A first.

Here we go . . .

- A. When they finished.
- B. The Interval.
- C. When the equipment broke down.
- D. When a member of the opposite sex put their hand on your knee.
- E. When a member of the same sex put their hand on your knee.
- F. When Tim "Beaky" Snee's nose got caught in the lighting gantry.
- G. When Bozhead Barnacle woke up.
- H. When Boghead Barnacle didn't wake up.
- I. When Ashley "Fairy" Hoths cosed back.
- J. Greasy Wop Fernandez ice cream during the interval.

GARDENING

by Tim Stone
(or Peeping Tim)

Well, over the last few weeks I've been harping around some of London's park areas searching for large bushes.

London's park land has hundreds of such bushes, but I was looking for a special bush, and sure enough, I found what I was looking for on Hampstead Heath.

At first it looked like a perfectly normal bush of the great variety, but (amazingly) I was sure I detected movement coming from within the enormous foliage.

Gently, parting the branches I saw two winking bodies, or to give them their full Latin title - BUNKUS UPPUS.

Well now's the time of year for it, and I think if you look carefully you yourselves can find many such examples all over England.

Footnote: Our legal department says that with luck Tim will get off with a suspended sentence.

DIETING

by Ashley Holt

Yes, I must admit at one time I was thin. Repulsively thin! My clothes fitted me, and every shop I went into had something my size. Cream buns didn't tempt me, and two glasses of Perrier water and I was unfit to drive. Girls used to fall madly and passionately in love with my perfect repulsive physique. Yes, I'll own up . . . I was fit and healthy.

Out of sheer desperation I went to see Dr. Steve Barnacle, (Confidential Clinic, page 5), who told me that I had to get fat very quickly, or I was in danger of staying permanently normal for the rest of my life.

He prescribed at least twelve pints of lager a day, plus as much high calorie food as I could eat. Positively no exercise (bedroom mating exercises were permitted, or to give it it's full Latin name, RUMPUS PUMPUS INNUS BEDUS). Other such "naughty" activities had to be confined to just once a month, (eg KNEELUS TREMBLUS).

Well, now I'm well on the road to obesity and all thanks to Dr Barnacle.

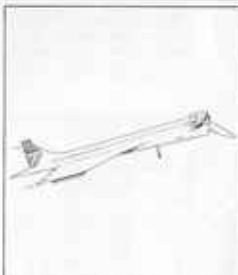

I'm Linda, try me.

I'm James, spy me.

I'm E20, buy me.

I'm Tim 'beaky' Stone, fly me.

Dear Old Dodgers,

I think that the Rick WAKEMAN Show is a masterpiece. I have followed Rick WAKEMAN'S career since the beginning and think the world should know what a wonderful talented genius this man is.

Mrs Mildred WAKEMAN
Northolt Middle

Dear Old Dodgers,

I really must protest at last weeks disgusting picture of me and Lord Longford at a Rick WAKEMAN Show. I can quite easily explain what happened. Lord Longford had dropped his spectacles on the floor and was bending down looking for them. I, in all innocence, (as at the time I was deeply shocked at the stunt and since that was wrong from the stage), looked down and saw Lord Longford's bald head. Thinking it was my knee... and being very clumsy, I covered it with my skirt, just as the unfortunate gentleman was taken. I was smiling purely because the show was about to finish.

Yours sincerely,
Mary LIGHTHOUSE

Rick WAKEMAN replies:

I guarantee it won't. Ten Stone was in fact the only person who and in time that right, but he promises me that he will never stare up again. As for his being doctor, he explains that he's been told by his dentist not to drink for ten days owing to some glacial complaint.

Dear Old Dodgers,

At a recent Rick WAKEMAN Show, the man next to me constantly opened his mouth and showed me his naughty bit. Can I prosecute?

Irene TOPPOMEI

Not really Yvonne, because you shouldn't have been on the stage standing next to Tim in the first place.

Dear Old Dodgers,

I need to see the Rick WAKEMAN Show last week and was shocked to hear and see that most of the band were completely out of tune and drunk.

Can you assure me it won't happen again.
